In Service to Kingdom, College, and Society,

Estelle Rouge Scarpe

That time of year thou mayst in me behold
 When yellow leaves, or none, or few, do hang
Upon those boughs which shake against the cold,
 Bare ruin'd choirs, where late the sweet birds sang.
In me thou see'st the twilight of such day
 As after sunset fadeth in the west,
Which by and by black night doth take away,
 Death's second self, that seals up all in rest.
In me thou see'st the glowing of such fire
 That on the ashes of his youth doth lie,
As the death-bed whereon it must expire,
 Consum'd with that which it was nourish'd by.

This thou perceiv'st, which makes thy love more strong,
To love that well which thou must leave ere long.

-- "Sonnet 73", William Shakespeare
