

Just a Few Terms to Know

Apprentice	A student following the path of the Laurel
Autocrat	Organizes and leads the team running the event.
Chirurgéon	This person provides first aid for minor injuries at SCA events.
Count & Countess	Those that have served as King or Queen at least once.
Court Baron & Baroness	Those recognized by the Crown for various reasons such as notable service to the Crown or Kingdom.
Duke & Duchess	Those that have served as King or Queen at least twice.
Feastcrat or Feast Steward	Organizes and leads the team preparing the food for feast.
Hall Steward	Organizes feast hall set up and makes arrangements for serving and clean up assistance.
Herald	Heralds makes announcements and help people research their names and heraldic devices in preparation for submission to the College of Heraldry.
Honorable Lord & Lady	The recipient of a Grant of Arms or an award that conveys a GoA
King & Queen	The rulers of the entire Kingdom. Chosen through combat (Crown Tourney) They bestow awards upon the deserving subjects of Their Kingdom and They can make or change laws (except in the case of a conflict with Corpora, local, state, and federal laws).
Knights - KSCA	Those who have achieved great skill at arms, and who are considered by the other members of the Chivalry to be models of prowess, chivalry, and honor. In Fealty to the Crown
Landed Baron & Baroness	Those chosen to oversee a Barony and act as representatives of the Crown.
Laurel - OL	Those recognized for their research in medieval crafts, their willingness to teach their skills, and their skill at their arts.
Lord & Lady	The recipient of an Award of Arms or an award that conveys an AoA
Marshall	This person regulates the marshal activities making sure the participants are authorized and following combat rules.
Master of Arms - MSCA	Those who have achieved great skill at arms, and who are considered by the other members of the Chivalry to be models of prowess, chivalry, and honor. Not in Fealty to the Crown.
MiLord & MiLady	General greetings for a male or female
Pelican - OP	Those whose work in service to the SCA has made a great difference.
Prince & Princess	The heirs to the kingdom, chosen by combat in the Crown Tourney. They hold these titles until their coronation as King and Queen
Protégé	A student following the path of the Pelican
Regalia	The emblems, symbols, decorations or insignia indicative of an office or membership
Scribe	This person creates scrolls through calligraphy and illumination for the Crown and Their representatives to present to Their subjects.
Seneschal	The group administrator similar to a group president.
Squire	A student following the path to become one of the Chivalry
Troll	Check in. People attending the event sign in and pay their site and feast fees as well as sign up for tournaments, volunteer opportunities, classes, etc.
Viscount & Viscountess	Those that have served as Prince or Princess of a Principality at least once.